Committee Reports

Car Show Committee: Well the car show is upon us..... the committee is still in need of door prizes. If you have one, or can snag one, contact Chatty or just bring it to the show on Saturday the 17th.

Thanks to all the members that sold booklet ads. The booklets have been printed and this year we raised xxx. This is up from the xxx we raised last year.

Set up volunteers should arrive at 6am.
Generation Cars should arrive at 7am.
All worker bees should arrive by 7:30am.
Gates open at 8am.

Most of the volunteers have been assigned work sites, but more are needed. At the meeting, Frank Silvaggio volunteered to help in Building 1, Dwight Lavender volunteered to help in Building 2, and Linda Silvaggio will assist in selling 50/50 tickets. One more is needed to help with 50/50.

The Harrington Journal is doing a feature this week about the upcoming car show. It will report who our charity is and that over the past few years, we have given Home of the Brave over $16,500. Watch the paper.

The Car Show banners are up on the fences at the entrance to the Fairgrounds, and here's hoping this brings lots and lots of cars this year. Our pre-registration is way up this year, so that's a good sign.

Members, just remember..... no vehicle, be it car, truck, or cycle, can be entered into the show by a member. This is not our time to win.

Christmas Committee - Diane Acker reported that the Christmas plans are under way. The party this year will be on Sunday Dec. 4th at the Harrington Casino. Cost is $25pp. Due to a survey taken about last year's party, there will be no silent auction, and no Chinese auction. Other activities have been planned. A signup sheet will appear at the October meeting.
